

DAVID H. MILLS

Governor Mitch Daniels appointed David Mills as Director of the Department of Financial Institutions on September 8, 2009 and he was reappointed by Governor Mike Pence in February, 2013. Mills retired after thirty-seven years of corporate banking in December, 2007 from National City Bank Indiana as Senior Vice President and Deputy Chief Credit Officer. Mills received his undergraduate degree from the Indiana University School of Business and is a graduate of the Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin. He is an Elder and Endowment Fund Trustee of Tabernacle Presbyterian Church and has served on numerous community and civic boards including the Indiana Humanities Council, Town of Zionsville Board of Zoning Appeals, Indiana Community Business Credit Corporation, and The Cabaret. David serves on the Board of Directors of the Conference of State Bank Supervisors and presently is District II Chair. He was named a Sagamore of the Wabash by Governor Bayh in 1996 and received the Indiana Distinguished Service Medal in 2013 from Governor Daniels. He is married, has a son and daughter and four granddaughters and resides in Zionsville, Indiana.